Conditions of FIA Licenses: For entering a car, an Entrant's License is required. For driving a car, a Driver's License is required. If entrant and driver are one and the same, both an Entrant and Driver License must be held. Licenses are valid for competing in any event on the FIA Calendar, unless endorsed for Drag Racing, Historic Racing, Karting or Rallies only or unauthorized due to failure to satisfy minimum age requirement. Licenses are valid for the calendar year only, unless otherwise suspended, revoked or extended. Applications for renewal will be provided by the Member Clubs. A FIA Driver's License is not transferable, under penalty of revocation of the license.

If you are participating in an event outside of the U.S., please be aware of all FIA International Sporting Code regulations found on the FIA website at www.fia.com. Additionally, be aware of the Therapeutic Use Exemptions (TUE) process as outlined in Appendix A of the FIA International Sporting Code.
